Assignments

1. Create a web application. Create a WebForm 'PersonalDetails' take a form and place the controls(Labels & TextBoxes) so that user can enter his personal details in the given form. The entered data should be redirected to another page 'Display' where the data will be displayed.

2. Create a web application to add beneficiary to your account in 'AddBeneficiary' page and the details should be redirected to "ConfirmBeneficiary" page, where user can see all the entered data and if data is correct then click on Confirm to display success message else click on Cancel to go back to previous request.

3. Create a web application to transfer the amount from one account to the account added in beneficiary list and also provide an option to schedule the transfer for future (For scheduled dates you can use Calendar control) in 'Account' page and the details entered in this page should be redirected to 'Confirm' page where user can see his entered data and if data is correct then click on Confirm to display success message else click on Cancel to redirect to 'Account' page.